2017 Community Impact Feedback

We've been holding community conversations about the needs in our area with professionals in the health and human services field. We need your input on the state of your community in order to help make the decisions about where future investments should be spent. This will help us determine how to make the biggest impact in your community. Please answer the questions below, all feedback will remain anonymous.

1 What do you and your family struggle with?

2 What do you need to help get rid of these struggles? Who do you think can/should provide this help?
